Unprofessional waste of time

Came to Antonoplos with a routine real estate contract matter. We met in person for a free consultation after describing my need using their online inquiry form.

In person, Peter Antonoplos immediately told me not to pursue the contract. No basis, just "don't do it." An attorney's job is not to tell you what to do, but to present available options and describe the risks involved. Peter was the antithesis of this. When pressed to point to any concrete risks or rationale, he made some bogus claims that didn't make any sense.

When his arguments were revealed to be baseless, he resorted to ad hominem attacks. "Did you go to law school? I didn't think so."

Then he bloviated for minutes about conflict of interest, which didn't actually explain anything and should not have been an impediment. Finally he refused to take up the matter. The need had been clearly stated in the initial inquiry, so I have no idea why he accepted the consultation in the first place.

I may not have gone to law school, but I can use logic and spot a rotten apple. I've never seen a lawyer behave so unprofessionally.

All of the other attorneys I talked to about this contract matter immediately offered several possible options and had handled similar cases before.

Went with another firm instead and had no issue. Don't waste your time with Antonoplos & Associates.

Tried this tonight for first time. Amazing steak and turkey sandwich. Definitely try a drink or a homemade dessert. Very nice staff and quiet, outdoor seating.

I would give this law firm a 0 (or less) if I could. Don't offer a free consultation if all that matters is the money! At least pretend to care about the potential client. How rude of me to ask some basic questions before the cash register started ringing. You are condescending and I would not trust you with the well-being of my family. Ridiculous!
